

Wilmington Preparatory Academy receives Federal Title I funding to support student learning objectives. Under Title I, parents are entitled to know the credentials of their students' teachers. We are pleased to notify you that all of our teachers are Highly Qualified as defined by the NC Department of Public Instruction. However, if you would like specific information regarding your child's teacher's qualifications please contact the Dean, Mr. Kevin Johnson at 910-799-6776 or email kevin@wilmingtonprep.com

Wilmington Preparatory Academy also receives Federal Title II funding which is dedicated to staff development. This year, the Dean along with the teaching staff will attend professional development workshops and conferences planned by the school. Teachers will also complete PD modules offered by the NC DPI via NCEES. In addition to this the Dean will take leadership courses at the University of North Carolina Wilmington.
